Comment. The formation of 3 Division has resulted in rearrangement of the units, as shown in paragraph 1 above, but it is probable that the strength of the individual units remains much the same as is detailed in this paragraph.)

3. As of 7 October 1948 the following changes in organization and location of units were completed or in process:

The Imperial Army had decided to postpone the formation of 32 Garrison Battalion, 3 Division, at Harrar until September 1949.

In 2 Division, 6 Battalion and 10 Battalion are in the process of transfer, 6 Battalion going to Quoram, and 10 Battalion to Adowa.

In anticipation of tribal fighting over grazing and water rights in the Ogaden, the following moves will be effected: 9 Battalion to Harrar to join 5 Battalion and come under command of 11 Brigade. 10 Brigade Hq. at Giggiga to move to Dagabur. 31 Battalion at Harrar to move to Giggiga. When the transfer has been completed, 9 Brigade and 10 Brigade will have only 2 battalions each and 11 Brigade will have 4 battalions. All these are in 3 Division.
